PREFACE

The cemeteries of Tuscarawas County, Ohio, number more than two hundred. The objective for this project of the Tuscarawas County Genealogical Society is to list all the burials in the County and present a permanent record for posterity. To provide volumes of reasonable size we shall of necessity publish them in three or four volumes. Volume I contains all the cemeteries in five of the county's twenty-two townships. They are Auburn, Bucks, Franklin, Sugarcreek, and Wayne.

We have made the greatest effort to copy names and dates exactly as they were on the stones. Other sources have been utilized to aid in our search. Sources used were available cemetery records, which have provided names, dates, and locations for many unmarked burials; records of officiating ministers and churches; and volunteered information by individuals. Of utmost importance are the inscriptions on the old stones which will soon be truly "illegible" and those which have fallen and must be unearthed. We are especially proud of the results of our efforts in this direction.

To facilitate research in this book we are providing:

An alphabetical index of surnames, listing code names for all cemeteries where that surname is found. page 244

Key for code names for cemeteries.

Key of symbols used to conserve space.

A Tuscarawas County map to help in locating the townships in this book.

A map for each township showing the location of each cemetery in the township.

HOOBLER- SYLER - LINT CEMETERY BU9

Located in Bucks Township, Tuscarawas County, Ohio on South Butler Street in the village of Baltic. R. 4, T. 7, S. 5, Q. 1.

The land for this was given by one of the early settler families, the HOOBLERS. At a very early time a small church was built across the road from the grave yard and was used by the different denominations as the Lutherans, the E. & R., Eavangelical and others until each could afford their own church.
The last service held here was a community Thanksgiving service given in honor of the men returned from the Spanish- American War.
By about 1900 the church was completely dismantled and gone.
